Aquaman ★★★ (Jasper 8 Theatres)

The saving grace of this reasonably entertaining and sometimes truly ridiculous origin story is that everyone seems to get the sheer, waterlogged lunacy of the concept, so why not have fun with it? As the fish-man, Jason Momoa has the physicality and the willingness to make himself look silly, and the natural charisma of a Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson. (Superhero action, PG-13, 2 hrs. 23 min.)

Bumblebee ★★½ (Jasper 8 Theatres) Hailee Steinfeld stars as Charlie, a music-obsessed 18-year-old who wakes up to the Smiths and has quite the enviable collection of band T-shirts. She's mourning the loss of her father, pouring herself into working on his classic car. All she wants is her own set of wheels, so when a dusty yellow VW Beetle shows up at the junkyard, she finagles a way to take it home. Much to her surprise, the little beater morphs into a scared, quivering, giant robot, whom she dubs Bumblebee. This prequel offers Bumblebee a chance to shine, and you'll come away with a newfound sense of affection for the most lovable alien vehicle in the universe. (Science fiction/action, PG-13, 1 hr., 53 min.)

Glass ★★½ (Jasper 8 Theatres) M. Night Shyamalan's jigsaw puzzle of a trilogy that began with "Unbreakable" and "Split" ends in disappointment with this underwhelming, half-baked, slightly sour and even off-putting finale. Despite the game efforts of Bruce Willis, Samuel L. Jackson and James McAvoy, the plot begins to crack early in the first act and shatters to pieces in the last moments. (Sci-fi thriller, PG-13, 2 hrs. 9 min.)

Mary Poppins Returns ★★★½ (Jasper 8 Theatres) While it would be all but impossible to match one of the most beloved and acclaimed musicals of all time, "Mary Poppins Returns" is a sequel worthy of the name. Emily Blunt is sensational, along with a stellar supporting cast including Lin-Manuel Miranda, in this wall-to-wall smile of a movie: big of heart and large in scale, brimming with show-stopping musical numbers. (Musical, PG, 2 hrs. 10 min.)

The Mule ★★★ Clint Eastwood directs and stars as a 90-ish horticulturalist who takes a delivery job and later learns what he's hauling is drugs. This isn't close to being on a par with Eastwood's past triumphs, but it's an entertaining enough offbeat crime story featuring an amazing cast. (Crime comedy/drama, R, 1 hr. 56 min.)

The Upside ★★ (Jasper 8 Theatres) Kevin Hart delivers a sincere and relatively low-key performance as a convict hired to assist a billionaire business genius (Bryan Cranston) paralyzed from the neck down. He and Cranston mesh well together, but the overlong story is stuffed with unnecessary and momentum-blocking detours. (Comedy, PG-13, 2 hrs. 5 min.)
