

Patberg helps No. 12 IU go 4-0 in Big Ten

By The Associated Press

BLOOMINGTON — Ali Patberg scored 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting and No. 12 Indiana improved to 4-0 in the Big Ten Conference for the COLLEGE BASKETBALL first time ever with a 66-48 win over Purdue on Thursday night.

The Boilermakers scored the first four points of the game and then Indiana outscored them 14-2 for a 14-6 lead after one quarter. The Hoosiers led 28-16 at halftime and Patberg had 11 points.

Indiana took control by outscoring Purdue 11-1 to open the fourth quarter.

Aleksa Gulbe had 10 points and eight rebounds for Indiana (14-2, 4-0), which forced 21 turnovers and turned those into 26 points. The Hoosiers shot 50% in the second half.

Ae’Rianna Harris scored 15 points for the Boilermakers (11-5, 2-2), who shot 56% in the second half after managing just 26% in the first half, when they went 0 for 8 from 3-point range.

No. 19 Michigan survives double OT against Purdue

By MATT SCHOCH
The Associated Press

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Juwan Howard knew he was getting a hard-nosed point guard when he took over as coach at his alma mater. In Michigan’s senior point guard Zavier Simpson, he also saw some of himself.

Howard used astrology to explain his bond with Simpson, who scored 22 points and made big shots late to lift the 19th-ranked Wolverines to an 84-78 victory over Purdue in a double-overtime thriller on Thursday night. “We both are Aquarius,” Howard said, adding that Simpson’s mom and Howard’s grandmother were both interested in astrology. “We both can be bull-headed, I will also add stubborn.

“We also both are tough-nosed competitors. But the beauty of it is that we both trust one another.”

Simpson did not shoot for more than 18 minutes to start the game but took charge on offense when it was needed.

To avoid a third straight Big Ten loss, the Wolverines (11-4, 2-2) overcame a monstrous effort from Purdue sophomore Trevion Williams, who had career highs with 36 points and 20 rebounds but missed a shot to win at the regulation buzzer. Williams outplayed Michigan’s Jon Teske, making 16 of 28 field goals, while Howard refused to send a double-team to help his senior center.

“I just tried to get him off his feet, get him in the air, get him jumping a little bit,” Williams said. “Once I got a couple to fall, I started getting more comfortable and start making more moves.”

we knew we could, and obviously, this meet, with Southridge having such a small team, we knew it would be a good opportunity.”

Vaughn said everything has to be really good against Heritage Hills and Pike Central, calling those teams the best competition the female divers will see all season long.

“We’ve got to work on making sure everything’s clean from here on out,” she said. “You can’t have faulty positions or any of those types of things.
