

Rangers top Wolfpack; Raider golfers fall at home

From Herald Staff Reports

Most local sporting events on Thursday evening were either canceled or postponed due to heavy showers earlier in the day, but a few local teams pressed their luck and it paid off, as they were able to get in their contests.

Here's a brief rundown of Thursday night's prep sports action.

■ Baseball
Rangers 11, Wolfpack 4: After falling behind 3-0 early in Marengo, the Forest Park baseball team used a four-run third inning and a five-run sixth inning to pull away for a road victory over Crawford County.

Gavin Knust, Aaron Hurst, Drew Howard and Garret Berg all had multi-hit games for the Rangers, while Berg led the way with three RBIs.

Elliott Rothgerber was the winning pitcher on the mound for Forest Park.

■ Golf
Marksmen 170, Raiders 179: In a battle of Pocket Athletic Conference foes, Tell City defeated Southridge at the Huntingburg Country Club.

Colin Noble of Tell City was the match medalist with a score of 37, while Coby Reller led the Raiders with a 42. Michael Kappner (45), Aidan Blessinger (45), Tristan Boerner (47), Carson Mundy (48) and Owen Kinker (53) rounded out Southridge's scoring.

COLLEGE BOUND

JACK BIES

■ Northern Kentucky University | Golf | Jasper

What was the biggest factor into your decision to play golf collegiately? That was just my dream from when I was a little. I grew up playing almost every sport, it was never really golf at first — it was always baseball or basketball. Around fifth grade, I just decided to try out golf and quit baseball and got obsessed with it — I think obsessed is the right word.
