

Schank selected to compete in All-Star game

From Herald Staff Reports

While Southridge senior Tucker Schank's playing career with the Raiders may have come to an end on Tuesday night, he'll still get one more baseball game to participate in before he heads off to Indiana University.

Schank was one of 50 players selected to compete in the 2019 IHSBCA North-South All-Star game in Madison. The event will take place this weekend from Friday, June 21 to Sunday, June 23.

It was a very impressive senior year for Schank on the baseball diamond as he led the Raiders in several statistical categories including hits (45), at-bats (112), runs (35) and also had eight extra-base hits, 21 runs driven in and a batting average of .402.

Schank will be attending Indiana University where he will be playing baseball for head coach Jeff Mercer and the Hoosiers. He announced his commitment at Southridge High School on May 17.

While Schank may be the only local athlete on the South roster, there are also several players from nearby schools and conferences that were selected to compete.

The South roster includes names such as Shane Harris (North Posey), Tyler Kapust (Silver Creek), Brodey Heaton (Castle), Ethan Vecrumba (Edgewood) and Steven Molinet (Tecumseh).

A few players the Raiders have faced in the postseason such as Austin's Drew Buhr and South Vermillion's Cooper Terry will also be competing for the South.

There are also many representatives from the IHSAA State Finals teams on both the North and South rosters.

Trey Stokes (Alexandria-Monroe) will represent the North while Michael Dillon (Hamilton Southeastern) and Julian Greenwell (Columbus East) will be members of the South team.

In 2018, Northeast Dubois' Case Eisenhut and Forest Park's Trever Zink were both South representatives while in 2017, Jasper's Evan Aders represented the South.

Dubois County has been represented on the IHSBCA South All-Star team every year since 2008.

■ ON THIS DAY IN BASEBALL
June 20
1912 — The New York Giants outslug the Boston Braves 21-12 with the teams scoring a total of 17 runs in the ninth inning. The Giants scored seven runs to take a 21-2 lead and the Braves scored 10 runs in the ninth.
1932 — Philadelphia's Doc Cramer hit six singles in six at-bats and Mickey Cochrane, Jimmie Foxx and Mule Haas each drove in four runs in the Athletics' 18-11 win over the Chicago White Sox. Haas hit a grand slam in the sixth inning to put the A's up 12-6.
1956 — Mickey Mantle hit two home runs into the right centerfield bleachers at Detroit's Briggs Stadium. Mantle hit both blasts off Billy Hoelt in the 7-4 win. He became the first player to reach the bleachers since they were built in the late 1930s.
1973 — San Francisco's Bobby Bonds broke Lou Brock's National League record for leadoff home runs. Bonds' 22nd career leadoff home run came off Don Gullet in a 7-5 loss to the Cincinnati Reds.
1973 — Chicago's Cy Acosta becomes the first American League pitcher to bat since the designated hitter rule went into effect. Acosta strikes out in the eighth inning, and still gets the win in the White Sox' 8-3 win over California.
1980 — Freddie Patek, one of baseball's smallest players at 5-foot-5, hit three home runs and a double to lead the California Angels in a 20-2 rout of the Boston Red Sox in Fenway Park.
1992 — Kelly Saunders became the second woman to serve as a public address announcer at a major league game when she filled in for Rex Barney in Baltimore.
1994 — The Detroit Tigers' string of 25 straight games hitting a home run ended in a 7-1 loss to Cleveland. The streak matched the major league mark set by the 1941 New York Yankees.
2004 — Ken Griffey Jr. hit the 500th home run of his career, off Matt Morris, to help the Cincinnati Reds beat the St. Louis Cardinals 6-0.
2007 — Sammy Sosa hit his 600th home run, making him the fifth player to reach the milestone. Sosa, playing for the Texas Rangers following a year out of baseball, hit a solo homer off Jason Marquis. It came in the fifth inning against the Chicago Cubs, the team he played for from 1992-2004.
2009 — Two games ended on wild pitches in extra innings. Nate Schierholtz scored the winning run for San Francisco on a wild pitch by Jason Jennings with two outs in the 11th inning and the Giants beat the Texas Rangers 2-1. Earlier, the Chicago Cubs beat Cleveland 6-5 in 13 innings when Andres Blanco came home on Kerry Wood's gaffe.
2011 — The Florida Marlins named Jack McKeon interim manager. The 80-year-old McKeon became the second-oldest manager in major league history. Connie Mack managed the Philadelphia Athletics in a suit, tie and straw hat until 1950, when he was 87.
2015 — Max Scherzer pitched a no-hitter, losing his perfect game with two outs in the ninth inning when he hit a batter in the Washington Nationals' 6-0 win over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Scherzer dominated in retiring the first 26 batters and was one strike from throwing the 22nd perfect game in major league history since 1900. Pinch-hitter Jose Tabata fouled off a pair of 2-2 pitches before Scherzer clipped him on the elbow with a breaking ball. Scherzer then retired Josh Harrison on a deep fly to left.

2016 — Colorado beat Miami 5-3 where eight solo homers accounted for all the runs in the game and set a major league record. Mark Reynolds hit two homers and Trevor Story, Nick Hundley and Charlie Blackmon also went deep for the Rockies. Marcell Ozuna homered twice and Giancarlo Stanton hit one for the Marlins. The previous MLB mark was five. The eight home runs were also the most in a game at Marlins Park since it opened in 2012. Five of the game's first 13 batters connected.
2017 — Umpire Joe West worked his 5,000th major league game. West was behind the plate for a matchup between the Arizona Diamondbacks and Colorado Rockies at Coors Field. The 64-year-old, nicknamed "Cowboy" Joe, is the third umpire to work at least 5,000 games, joining Hall of Famer Bill Klem (5,375) and Bruce Froemming (5,163). West made his major league debut as a 23-year-old on Sept. 14, 1976, at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium in a game between the Braves and Houston Astros. He joined the NL staff full time in 1978. His 40 seasons umpiring in the majors are the most by any umpire.
Today's birthdays: Touki Toussaint 23; Kendrys Morales 36.
